JOHNNY WONDER

Q. WHY DOES AN OPOSSUM HANG BY ITS TAIL?
BRIAN DYON, OF LUDLOW, MA., WINS A PRIZE FOR THIS QUESTION.

A. An opossum is a furry animal that looks something like an overgrown rat. It has a long tail without much hair on it. The opossum spends a lot of time in trees, hunting and eating. It has a special fondness for fruit, and likes to invade orchards at night. The opossum often eats upside down. To do this, it wraps its long tail around a branch, hangs head-down, and grasps its food with all four feet. After eating, the opossum sits on its hind legs and washes itself like a cat. An opossum also uses its skillful tail as an extra hand for support while climbing.

You can win a World Almanac if your question is selected. Send your name and age to JOHNNY WONDER, c/o this newspaper, P.O. Box 1250, Santa Cruz, CA 95061.
